Weekly Message

Dear Robert Warren families,

Winter Break is finally here, and we are all looking forward to spending time with family and friends, enjoying some well-deserved rest, and (hopefully) getting some fresh air if the weather warms up a bit.

This week was filled with holiday-themed fun and activities! Students and staff celebrated with outfits like Canadian tuxedos, crazy hair, tacky holiday sweaters, holiday hats, and cozy pajamas.

Today, we wrapped up the week with a fantastic drama presentation of How the Grinch Stole Christmas, an energetic pep rally, and a teacher vs. student basketball game. While I wish I could say the teachers won, let's just say we survived!

De parte de todo el personal de Robert Warren, les deseamos unas maravillosas vacaciones de invierno y un feliz Año Nuevo.

From all of us at Robert Warren, we wish you a joyful Winter Break and a Happy New Year! We look forward to seeing everyone back on Monday, January 6th!

Warm regards,

Kristal Derbyshire, Principal

Parent Book Club Invitation

We are excited to invite parents to join our upcoming book club featuring The Anxious Generation by Jonathan Haidt. This insightful book explores the rise in adolescent anxiety and depression, examining the roles of technology, social media, parenting, education trends, and sociopolitical change. It also offers solutions and recommendations to support adolescent wellbeing. The book club will meet twice: once in late February to discuss the book's first half and again in early April to explore the second half (exact dates to be determined).

This is a great opportunity to connect with other parents and engage in meaningful discussions about supporting our youth. If you're interested in participating, please email Ms. Courtney Keen at ckeen@cbe.ab.ca.
