Weekly Message

Dear Robert Warren families,

It has been a chilly week with many indoor lunch hours! We know students are eager to get outside, and hopefully, warmer days are ahead. Please continue to send students dressed for the weather, as cold temperatures are expected to continue.

Next week is a short one—students have classes Monday to Wednesday only, with Teacher's Convention on Thursday and Friday. Monday, February 17th is Family Day, so classes resume on Tuesday, February 18th. We hope everyone enjoys the extended weekend!

We're excited to host volleyball games Monday and Tuesday night at RW! Students are welcome to cheer on their teams but must have a safe way home after the games, which end around 6:00 p.m.

For Grade 9 families considering a transfer to a non-designated high school, the Program or Sequence of Courses Request runs from February 10 to March 15 and must be completed online.

A reminder that Yearbook Cover voting has been open all week and closes on Monday, February 10th. If your student hasn't voted yet, check out the seven cover options and voting details at the end of this message.

Thank you for your ongoing support. Let's stay warm and continue fostering kindness and perseverance in our students!
